

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation
and this viewer will
boycott every advertiser
affiliated with the Baltimore station
involved in the
airing of this program.

It is my wish that
the FCC not renew
this company's license in the Baltimore area
because of this
travesty.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
